SUPPLEMENT [REDACTED]

1. It is reported that the Communist leader, Rodolfo Ghioldi, promised to write a letter of introduction for Dr. Manuel V. Ordonez which would permit him to visit Hungary and the Russian Zone of Germany during a projected trip to Europe around 1 November.
2. Dr. Ordonez, who stands high in the Christian Democratic movement in Argentina, is said to be taking the trip for professional reasons. He plans to visit Rome and Spain, and wished also to go to Hungary. Therefore, he visited Ghioldi and explained that before leaving he wished to know if it would be possible to enter Hungary. Ghioldi said he would write a letter of introduction which will permit Ordonez to travel freely in Hungary and to visit the Russian Zone of Germany. The letter will be delivered to Ordonez the day before his departure.
